Re: West Virginia Board of Accountancy v. Jeffrey S. Feamster
Civil Action No.: 09-C-195

Dear Mr. Feamster:

Enclosed please a copy of an Order Granting Default Judgment entered on October 2, 2009, by the Honorable Judge Joseph Pomponio of the Greenbrier County Circuit Court. The Order grants the West Virginia Board of Accountancy ("Board") a permanent injunction against you from engaging in the practice of accountancy and the performance of attestation and compilation services. Should the Board learn that you are continuing in such practices, the Board will pursue contempt charges against you in court for failing to obey the Court's order along with the attorney's fees and costs associated with that proceeding. Please contact the Board office in order to become properly licensed to practice accountancy and the performance of attestation and compilation services.

Moreover, Judge Pomponio ordered that you pay to the Board attorney's fees and the costs of this litigation. You will receive within 30 days a bill from the Board office for the amount to be paid to the Board, and should you fail to pay these monies, the Board will pursue a contempt charge for your failure to pay.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

KATHERINE A. CAMPBELL
ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL
